OCT. 20 & 21. Expenses of Journey to Hadley with the boys

C. 15

Oct. 23. Thursday Morning a little after 7 o'clock a letter from uncle William Brit by express gave the heart rending intelligence, equally dreadful & unexpected, that My Wife, that best of women, was DEAD!

The world seems now to be but one scene of universal Desolation.

She Died Wednesday exactly at Noon. and expired without a groan or a struggle. She was born on Thursday Jan^y. 26. 1775.

O! best of wives - may thy weeping husband find comfort in the recollection of thy virtues. & prepare himself to rejoin thee in that blissful world, where virtuous Friends will meet to part no more.

1817.

Oct. 23. Left Hadley with Charles & Francis at half past 10. A.M. & arrived in Boston
Friday 24th at half past 10. A.M.

Expenses on the Journey as follows,

	29. 96

Oct. 25. Deposited in Uncle Eben Parsons' Tomb all that is mortal of Sarah Davenport Phelps.
There she rests with her Three departed Children - Edward, Elizabeth, & Louisa.

Happy they, who have passed the Gulph, & reached the shore of a blessful Eternity!

26. Sunday. Heard an occasional discourse by President Kirkland, from James 4 Ch. 14 & 15 vers.
